

The general public is cordially invited to attend a lecture/dramatization program prepared as a part of the on-going Cleveland/Northeast Ohio "Operatic Adventures" series. This unique presentation, highlighting Douglas Moore's tuneful American opera The Ballad of Baby Doe, will introduce attendees to the well-known Tabor story, but as seen from the point of view of Baby Doe's good friend Jake Sands (aka Jakob Sandelowsky).

The Maltz Museum is a distinctive world-class museum of Jewish culture and heritage.

EVENT:

The Ballad of Baby Doe: Fact or Fiction from the Perspective of a Shadchen

DESCRIPTION:

"The story of Horace Tabor's two marriages became the focus of one of the best American operas in modern times. We reincarnate Jake Sandelowsky, the Jewish merchant who introduced Baby Doe to Colorado Lieutenant Governor Tabor. Jake helps us sort fact from fiction while listening to the beautiful music of this moving opera."

DATE: Wednesday, June 11
